Below you will find a questionnaire so I may gather some of your personal information that will aid me in determining what potential estate planning issues you may be faced with and to then best suit you with the appropriate documents which will accomplish your long-term care planning objectives. Kindly answer, with as much detail as possible, the below questions. By completing the biographical information ahead of time, I will then be able to focus on your planning issues and develop an Estate Plan which meets your specific needs.

ESTATE PLANNING APPOINTMENTS:

In addition to gathering your biographical and asset information, I will also need to know the individual(s) you would like to choose to serve as successor appointments within your estate planning documents. Typically, spouses will choose each other to serve as the first appointment. However, please note that you may choose as many people to serve in these various roles as you would like. The spaces below serve as a guideline, only.

Trusts:

The Trustee of your Trust has the fiduciary obligation of gathering and managing the assets of your Trust in accordance with the provisions of your Trust Agreement. You may wish to choose a family member and a professional or independent Trustee to serve as co-Trustees to ensure that all responsibilities are complied with.
